CONCEPT AMG GT TRACK SPORT: new high-performance project from Mercedes-AMG

- Uncompromising sports car concept „born in Affalterbach“ to set new record times
- First teaser images provide an exclusive glimpse into the future of the AMG GT family

Affalterbach. Mercedes-AMG opens another exciting chapter in its performance history and hints with the CONCEPT AMG GT TRACK SPORT that the GT family is not yet complete. The uncompromising concept vehicle is designed for absolute driving dynamic peak performance to set new standards and record times.

With a first teaser of the CONCEPT AMG GT TRACK SPORT, Mercedes-AMG now offers an exclusive insight into the development workshop in Affalterbach. Here, the camouflaged high-performance project is being finalized before it has to prove itself on the test tracks. With the new concept vehicle, Mercedes-AMG demonstrates its great expertise as a sports car manufacturer and provides a preview of a possible expansion of the GT series with a V8 engine. The second generation of the two-door AMG GT was presented in 2023, and since then, the sports car family has been steadily growing.

Mercedes-Benz AG at a glance

Mercedes-Benz AG is part of the Mercedes-Benz Group AG with a total of around 175,000 employees worldwide and is responsible for the global business of Mercedes-Benz Cars and Mercedes-Benz Vans. Ola Källenius is Chairman of the Board of Management of Mercedes-Benz AG. The company focuses on the development, production and sales of passenger cars, vans and vehicle-related services. Furthermore, the company aspires to be the leader in the fields of electric mobility and vehicle software. The product portfolio comprises the Mercedes-Benz brand with Mercedes-AMG, Mercedes-Maybach and G-Class with their all-electric models as well as products of the smart brand. Mercedes-Benz AG is one of the world's largest manufacturers of high-end passenger cars. In 2024 it sold around 2,4 million passenger cars and vans. In its two business segments, Mercedes-Benz AG is continually expanding its worldwide production network with more than 30 production sites on four continents, while gearing itself to meet the requirements of electric mobility. At the same time, the company is constructing and extending its global battery production network on three continents. As sustainability is the guiding principle of the Mercedes-Benz strategy and for the company itself, this means creating lasting value for all stakeholders: for customers, employees, investors, business partners and society as a whole. The basis for this is the sustainable business strategy of the Mercedes-Benz Group. The company thus takes responsibility for the economic, ecological and social effects of its business activities and looks at the entire value chain.
